

Astrology and The Corona Crisis

By Holger Stavnsbjerg

The Dweller on The Threshold

Mankind has now come so far in its development that it has integrated its personality and thus created the Dweller on the Threshold, which is why it now stands on the border of divinity, symbolized by the birth of Jesus Christ.

This great event two thousand years ago was an expression of the fact that the Angel of mankind had “come to Earth” because mankind then and now has reached such a stage in its evolution that it is coming into contact with its soul. We celebrate Christmas, which coincides with the birth of baby Jesus in Bethlehem, symbolizing the first initiation that mankind is presently going through.

The Hierarchy, also called The Great White Brotherhood, consists of enlightened souls who were once human, and who on the inner planes work to promote and manifest the plan of evolution for the Earth and all mankind.

This brotherhood and the ever-growing crowd of world servants act as the Angel or soul of mankind, while advanced humanity today stands as the Dweller on the Threshold to divinity (Alice Bailey: Glamor, A World Problem (B) 138).

When we set out on our incarnation cycle as human beings, the personality is not a guardian yet. Man works unconsciously in his surroundings, seemingly a victim of circumstances, and subject to Maya, glamour and the attraction of life in the physical world.

What applies to the individual human being, also applies to humanity. Only when all of humanity functions as an integrated personality does its mighty threshold guard appear, as Christians call the devil. Depth psychologist Carl Gustav Jung calls it the shadow.

The Dweller on the Threshold manifests itself today through for example, materialism, separatism, nationalism, racism, astral vampirism, terrorism, the unconscious anti-spirituality of the media, or financial crime and greed, where money is stored away for selfish purposes because the will to share is lacking.

Symbolically, we as humans have 700 incarnations, where we develop and integrate the personality, and again symbolically understood 70 incarnations, where the soul has made the personality his servant on the spiritual path of liberation, called the path of discipleship.

In fact, we have many more lives at these two different stages, which depend on how wisely we choose, how quickly we pass the tests, and move through the different stages of development.

The personality ray is a synthesis of the rays of the physical, astral and mental body and, is created only late in human development when it begins to be controlled by the mental body, which develops as the last of the three bodies of the personality, which is the physical, astral and mental body.

The personality ray controls the guardian until the moment when the soul ray begins to make itself felt more and more, which happens only when you have reached such a stage in your development that you are a whole person or an integrated personality.

It is thus only when intelligence has developed that it becomes possible for man to sense his soul, also called the Angel, where he intuitively can experience the underlying divine PRESENCE.

This is largely the case today for millions of highly developed and intelligent people who – again symbolically understood – have gone through the 700 incarnations but have the remaining 70 incarnations on the path of initiation and discipleship ahead of them.

The Dweller on the Threshold or the guardian takes the form previously mentioned when a spiritual reorientation of human life has taken place, when the soul through crises has led the personality towards liberation to service.

It is here the conflict between the Dweller and the Angel understood intelligently, so the aspirant can sense his spiritual destiny and make the responsible choices. It is at this point he finally finds his special vocation and is able to manifest his idealistic aspirations into practice through his special work of service on the path of development.

Alice Bailey writes of this stage: “Will he respond and react consciously to the higher pull and pass on to new and higher areas of spiritual experience, or will he fall back into the glamour of time and space and into the thralldom of the personal life? Will he stand in a static quiescent condition in which neither the higher trend nor the lower pull will affect him?”

One or other of these three conditions must distinguish him and must succeed an earlier and vacillating experience wherein the disciple vibrates between the higher and the lower decisions. It is at this process, the Master presides. He is able to do nothing because it is the disciple's own problem. He can only endeavor to enhance the desire of the soul by the power of His directed thought. The personality can also do nothing, for at this point both the physical body and the astral vehicle are simply automatons, waiting responsively for the decision of the disciple, functioning in his mental body.

Only the disciple can act upon the mental level of consciousness at this point of endeavor. Once he does so, the die is cast. He either moves forward towards the door of light where the Master takes his hand and the Angel of the Presence becomes potent and active in a way which I may not describe to you, or he drops back temporarily into the life condition of the lower man; glamour and Maya settle down anew upon him, and the Dweller on the Threshold inserts himself between the disciple and the light from the open door and renews activity. The disciple either awakens suddenly to a wider grasp of reality and a deeper understanding of the Plan and his part in it, or the 'veils of earth' close over his head; the vision fades, and he reverts into the life of an ordinary human being, probably for the period of the incarnation wherein the opportunity was offered to him.

Should he, however, go forward through that door, then (according to the initiation that becomes possible) will be the revelation and its attendant consequences. The revelation will not be the revelation of possibilities. It is a factual experience, resulting in the evocation of new powers and capacities and the recognition of new modes and fields of service. These powers are conditioned by past developments and the presence of these capacities, plus a freedom of movement 'within the bounds of the Hierarchy, which lays far beyond anything he may have dreamed, become his. New hierarchical contacts are now possible to him; new responsibility is laid upon his shoulders and new 'fields of potency' become available for his use in world service." (Alice Bailey: Discipleship in the New Age (DINT 1) 114-5).

The Astrology of the Dweller on the Threshold

We can understand the Dweller on the Threshold as the personality minus the soul and is, according to Alice Bailey, astrologically connected to the planets Moon, Pluto, Uranus and Saturn.

The influence and karmic effect of the moon on the Earth is very strong and has, as far as the physical planet is concerned, an influence that is similar to the influence of the Dweller on the Threshold, whose strong influence man in our time feels year after year (B 138-148).

In our time, the Dweller on the Threshold is depression and fear (Saturn) and anxiety, crisis and death (Pluto), which in 2019-20 formed a conjunction with Jupiter in the great sign of initiation, Capricorn.

Saturn stands for the karma of humanity and the individual, Pluto for death, and Jupiter for life, because this planet transmits the 2nd ray of life of the physical sun of love and wisdom to the solar system and our humanity.

Transit Jupiter's fall in Capricorn and conjunction with transit Pluto and transit Saturn in the same sign therefore means that many people's lives, goals and habits have fallen away in connection with the corona epidemic 2020, whose economic and social repercussions may last until 2025, when the outer planets Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto change sign.

We had a Saturn/Pluto conjunction in Cancer in August/September 1914, when World War I broke out and a Saturn/Pluto conjunction in Leo in 1947/48 where the Russian blockade of Berlin initiated the Marshall Aid Plan to Europe from the USA, the Cold War and the creation of the state of Israel.

When Uranus entered Sagittarius in November 1982, while transit Pluto was conjunct transit Saturn in Libra, which sheds light on the sexual problem, the AIDS epidemic, created on the inner planes.

This epidemic, which manifested itself in earnest through a series of deaths, especially in the gay milieu, grew significantly when these two planets entered Scorpio and formed a conjunction with each other again in 1984.

Pluto/Saturn connections or aspects can account for losses where e.g., our crystallized thought forms, daily habits and routines fall away or transformed. During the COVID-19 crisis, many have lost their jobs and accompanying identities with a well-founded fear of also losing their immediate and elderly family members or having to leave home.

In the area(s) or house(s) that transit Saturn, Uranus and Pluto as well as progressive Moon will go through in your chart until approximately 2025, you, each group and all of humanity have special opportunities to meet the inner adversary, for example through a regression to the emotions and archetypes of the subconscious. All the different civilizations and cultures on the earth have always had an account of the hero's journey to the underworld, where his first confrontation is with his shadow or opponent against the soul, in order to free the princess (soul, love and life) from the dragon's captivity.

Through the inner cleansing and processing of previously repressed experiences and traumas from childhood or from past lives, is karma that determines what is to fall away, die or be reborn.

The First Initiation of Humanity

In the period 1945-49, the Tibetan wrote via Alice Bailey that humanity had undergone the preparatory tests for the first initiation, which had been harsh and relentless, but which are not completely over. The four Lords of Karma, of which

Saturn is the strongest, work today through the four great powers America, Russia, Great Britain and France, in whose hands the fate of mankind lies.

In this context, Russia, the United States and the United Kingdom constitute a very powerful world triangle of energy, and it is only when a free energy circulation and real understanding has been established between them that world peace is secured, and the first initiation has taken place. On the outer plane, that will be manifest through a new creativity in art through the second coming of the Christ, perhaps around 2150.

As part of the preparatory trials for the first initiation of mankind, hierarchy produced two types of avatars: one is the embodiment of the Angel of the Presence in humanity itself, which is the expression of the cosmic good that Abraham Lincoln, the Allies, Roosevelt and Churchill represented during World War II and probably also the new President of the United States Joe Biden in the United States in 2021.

The second type of avatar is the embodiment of humanity's threshold guard or shadow, which represents karma, the past, and materialism, as an aspect of cosmic evil. Within this group are the German Chancellor Otto Von Bismarck, who united Germany in the 19th century, the Axis powers Italy, Japan and Germany during World War II, as well as Adolf Hitler and his group.

Regarding the current global corona pandemic, it is interesting that Alice Bailey wrote in 1943 that one of the purposes of World War II was to destroy inadequate forms: "This destruction could have been brought about by an act of God, such as a great natural catastrophe or a universal epidemic, and such had been the original intention. Humanity was swept by forces that carried in themselves the seeds of destruction, and there was that in humanity which responded to those forces. Therefore, the Law of Destruction was permitted to work through humanity itself, and men are now destroying the forms through which many masses of men are functioning." (The Rays and the Initiations, p. 76)

The World Chart and The Crisis of Corona

A one-year, ten-year, fifty-year or hundred-year chart can be called a World Chart, as astrological and historical studies have shown that such a chart works convincingly for the nations and continents that use the current Gregorian calendar (Holger Stavnsbjerg: The Astrology of Mankind). In addition to being a hundred-year chart, the 2000-year chart is also a millennial chart for half of the Aquarian age, which lasts about 2100 years.

In the 20th century chart, the Moon is elevated in the 2nd house, is in fall in Scorpio and represents the Dweller on the Threshold and the population of the world. Furthermore, the Moon represents the personality that is defeated in Scorpio, which is why its influence slowly disappears: “Desire is destroyed, because it is by expressing desire of some kind that the personality shows life, quality, and appearance.” (Alice Bailey: Esoteric Astrology 207 (EA)).

This means, among other things, that humanity’s identification with Maya, physical glamour and materialistic illusions must fall away through e.g., economic, business or personal crises.

The Chart of the 21st Century

*The chart of the 21st century
January 1, 2000, midnight – Zone 1:00 Copenhagen*

One would also expect that those signs or houses was activated by progressions or the transits of the outer planets when the major disease epidemics broke out. The most important planet in connection with global pandemics is the radix position and transit of the planet of death, Pluto. Following that, the planet of karma and destiny is Saturn, with Uranus, Neptune and Chiron as the second most important planets.

In a one-year, ten-year or hundred-year chart, the Sun is always in Capricorn conjunct IC in the 4th house. This area of life represents the entire human family, which is divided into the many countries, continents, organizations and races that the earth’s population consists of. The 4th house also stands for the inherited traditions and habits that create the identity, continuity and security necessary for the growth and survival of humanity. In 2020, the transit Saturn/Pluto conjunction and transit Jupiter were and is passing through the 4th house in the sign of Capricorn, in the 21st century chart.

Along with Saturn, the Sun in the 4th house includes the leaders and authorities such as e.g., kings, prime ministers, or traditional forms of government (dictatorship, democracy) that hold the nation together.

In hundred-year-, one- or ten-year charts, the Ascendant is in most countries at the beginning of Libra, which is why humanity's soul intention is for us to develop a new awareness of how to practice right human relations, the lack of which is in fact humanity's greatest problem.

As Saturn is the hierarchical ruler of Libra and exoteric and esoteric ruler of the Sun sign of Capricorn, its position in radix points to karmic challenges and problems that have not yet been resolved, which we collectively carry with us from the past. Since Uranus is the esoteric ruler in Libra, its radix position and transit reflect where and when all that is new concerning the future and the Age of Aquarius will be manifest. In the same way, the progressive Ascendant, MC and Sun in the hundred-year chart point to humanity's advancing soul intention and when all that has hitherto had to be secret, which is part of humanity's evolutionary plan, is ready to be manifested. For example, transit Uranus was conjunct radix Pluto in the 14th century chart when the plague broke out in China in 1331.

The moon hides Uranus, which together with Scorpio controls the sacral chakra, which makes it possible through a personal crisis to find a new freedom through death or by developing a higher original mental creativity, so that one is not ruled by Maya or lost in matters of the flesh, as the Christians would express it.

Since the personality manifests itself through the physical body that the Moon controls, it theoretically means that many can die when the Moon in Scorpio is particularly highly activated in the progressive chart of the hundred-year chart or by the transits of the outer planets. This happened when thousands of people around the world suddenly died in the spring of 2020, when transit Uranus in Taurus in the 8th house was in opposition to the Moon in Scorpio in the 2nd house. When transit Uranus in 2020 simultaneously formed a trine to the radix Sun (11th house ruler) which relaxed the T-square between the Moon, Saturn and Neptune, it became possible for world leaders to act humanely and responsibly to the corona crisis.

In addition, the transit Saturn, Pluto and Jupiter conjunction went through Capricorn and the 4th house in square to 6th house ruler Jupiter in Aries in the 7th house. This was and is a test of how we each understand and relate to the crisis, and how the leaders of the nations are tackling the new extreme problems and challenges that the pandemic has created for all of humanity.

In the summer of 2020, when transit Uranus was conjunct 4th and 5th house ruler Saturn in 8th house and began to go retrograde in June/August, the death toll fell, but still caused reduction of the number of spectators to sport events and entertainment and teaching became limited (5th house). Experience-oriented events were canceled in several places, where the authorities encouraged many young people to stay more in their own homes and houses (4th house).

Preparation for initiation requires, among other things, being alone where the corona crisis has forced many people into some form of voluntary or involuntary isolation or withdrawal from the world in which one is accustomed to living, and which has previously created meaning and identity.

Here, through a depression or other form of external disaster, one can experience having lost everything one has hitherto loved and cherished, which is a typical initiation test that Job had to go through in the Old Testament. But Job was cool when he said to God, "The Lord gave, the Lord took, the name of the Lord be praised." God gave Job again, all that he had lost, abundantly.

The 2020 Chart

*The 10-year chart 2020-30
January 1, 2020 at midnight, Copenhagen*

In the ten-year chart for Earth and humanity for 2020 to 2030, the Moon is conjunct Neptune in the 6th house in Pisces, where Neptune is in detriment. The Moon and Mars rule the animal kingdom along with the 6th house, which stands for smaller animals, pets, which mink must be assumed to be categorized under, while the 12th house stands for larger animals such as horses, cows and elephants.

In the ten-year chart, the 8th house ruler, Mars, is in Scorpio in the 2nd house, in which it is in falling, which can mean that animals are killed, and many men and women lose their economic foundation due to unemployment, illness or death among their loved ones. Most mink breeders in Denmark have lost all their financial foundation and security, perhaps because reflections on the ethics of mink breeding have been and are required from their souls.

Radix Pluto and Saturn and the 6th house ruler, Jupiter, are in the 4th house of the ten-year chart, which creates crises in the nations of the world and in the many families, where death and unemployment create economic problems, so of course people are afraid of losing their house and other elements of security in their lives.

14th Century Chart

The Plague 1331-1722

14th century chart of January 1, 1300 at midnight, Beijing, China

In 1331, plague broke out in the Hubei province in central China, when transit Pluto had entered Pisces and the 6th house. The same year, progressive Ascendant in Scorpio and progressive MC were conjunct radix Saturn in the 10th house in Leo, (which rules Europe) in the 14th century chart.

Moreover, progressive Sun and transit Uranus were conjunct the 2nd house ruler, Pluto, which in the radix was located in Aquarius in the 4th house. Progressive Moon passed through Gemini and 9th House, so the plague quickly spread west, e.g., via the Silk Road, which in the Middle Ages was the most important trade route between China and Europe.

It is significant, that the planets ruling the Dweller on the Threshold, Saturn, Uranus, Moon and Pluto were all strongly affected by the progressive axis, progressive Sun and transit Uranus in the 14th century chart when the plague broke out.

In its soul chart, China has Sun in Libra and Ascendant in Taurus, where radix Chiron was 10 degrees in Taurus between the 7th and 8th house cusps in the hundred-year chart. With the radix Uranus conjunct Libra Ascendant in 12th house, much of the innovation of the 14th century first took place in China in 1331, when transit Uranus was conjunct the death planet, Pluto.

For the next twenty years, the plague spread to the rest of China and 1346 the disease had reached the Mongol army, the Golden Horde, which besieged the Genoese port city of Caffa on the Crimea. The siege was interrupted by the violence of the plague, with more than thousand soldiers suddenly falling over and dying in a few days. Before the Mongol army left the city, they sent their plague-dead and infected soldiers over the Genoese fortress walls on their catapults and throwing machines.

This caused the plague to break out inside the city, causing the survivors to panic towards Italy, and when the ship anchored in the port of Marseilles in October 1347, the infection spread rapidly to the rest of the continent, where between one third and half of the European population died within the next 20-30 years.

Roughly, the plague had 50-year cycles before a new wave came, which lasted 50 years, etc., which brings to mind Chiron rounds, which occur every 50th-51st year.

When the plague came to Europe in 1346/47, the progressive ascendant of the 14th century chart in Scorpio was square Pluto. From 1347-48 progressive Moon ended its movement through the 4th house and Capricorn, where it is in detriment and simultaneously exalted in the 4th house.

From 1346-48 transit Uranus was conjunct the Moon in the 7th house in Aries, which was part of the T-square between Neptune in Libra in the 12th house and the Mars / Sun / IC / Part of Fortune conjunction in the 4th house in Capricorn, where many were suddenly released from their physical body through death.

In addition, transit Chiron activated a conjunction with radix Chiron, located 10 degrees in Taurus between the 7th and 8th house cusps. At the same time, transit Pluto had gone through the 6th house and Pisces and Aries, for several years. In 1346-47 transit Pluto was conjunct the 6th house ruler Jupiter in Aries and conjunct the descendant, in square to MC, in opposition to the Ascendant and to Uranus in the 12th house in Libra. As transit Pluto also squared the radix Mars / Part of Fortune / Sun / IC conjunction, Pluto formed a grand cross in cardinal signs in 1348.

The 20th Century Chart

The Spanish Flu 1918-20

It is very enlightening to study the history of the 20th century in connection with the chart of this century.

For example, transit Uranus in its direct and retrograde motion was conjunct radix Pluto in the 9th house in Gemini, when America dropped its atomic bombs on Japan in August 1945. When transit Pluto went over the 20th century chart Libra Ascendant, the oil crisis came in 1973, which, especially in the West, created recession and economic crisis.

20th century chart January 1, 1900

During the Spanish flu in 1918-20, transit Pluto and Jupiter was conjunct MC in Cancer. Interestingly, it was American soldiers that were sent to Europe to help the Allied Forces against Germany during World War I, that brought the epidemic to Europe. We can see that Pluto in the 9th house in Gemini reflects that death (Pluto) can come from abroad (9th house) from America, whose Sun is in Gemini in its soul chart.

The Spanish flu was an unusually lethal influenza pandemic, lasting from February 1918 to April 1920 - that infected 500 million people- about a third of the world's population at the time – in four successive waves. The death toll is typically estimated to have been somewhere between 20 million and 50 million, although other estimates range from 17 million to 100 million, making it one of the deadliest pandemics in human history.

The Chart of CHINA

When transit Pluto and Saturn were conjunct radix Jupiter in Capricorn in the 12th house in 2019 in China's chart, the corona pandemic broke out during the uprising in Hong Kong due to a new extradition agreement with China.

Venus, 4th and 9th house ruler, was progressively conjunct the Moon, ruler of the 6th house, which in radix is conjunct the Aquarius Ascendant in the 1st house.

Communist China October 1, 1959 at 3:00 PM in Beijing, China

That transit Pluto and Saturn were conjunct radix Jupiter in the 12th house, reflected in the fact that China in early 2020, had many large hospitals built, near the cities and places where the epidemic was worst.

The Chart of America

USA September 11, 1776 at 5:10 PM, Philadelphia

America, for example, met the Dweller on the Threshold during the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001, when transit Pluto conjoined the Ascendant in Sagittarius, and transit Saturn conjoined the Descendant in Gemini. Progressive Sun was conjunct the Moon in Aquarius in the 3rd house, which stands for the Dweller on the Threshold.

In the US, the corona epidemic of 2020 quickly created an economic recession in the 2nd and 3rd quarters of the year, when transit Jupiter, Pluto and Saturn entered the 2nd house of the chart and conjunct radix Pluto in Capricorn in the 2nd house. Transit Saturn simultaneously activated the radix Pluto opposition to the Mercury / Part of Fortune conjunction in Cancer in the 2nd house. In 2021-23, The United States has its first Pluto round, which lasts 248 years, because the transit of Pluto goes in conjunction with radix Pluto in Capricorn in the 2nd house.

The Chart of New York

May 16, 1626, at 8:56 AM, New York Zone 4:56 V

New York's chart was cast and rectified by Marc Penfield on May 16, 1626, when the Dutch governor bought the Island of Manhattan from the American Indians for 60 guilders (Marc Penfield: Horoscopes of the Western Hemisphere 167-68).

The fact that rulers of the 8th house, Saturn and Uranus, are located in the 2nd house, and that Venus, Pluto and the Sun are in Taurus, shows that a significant portion of New York's revenue is earned from investments, banking and transnational stock trading. The Charging Bull on Broadway in the financial district of Manhattan is a symbol of the aggressive economic optimism and prosperity of Wall Street and New York.

New York and Wall Street has created a lot of economic prosperity and jobs for America, but also from time to time led to worldwide economic crises.

The Statue of Liberty, given as a gift to the United States from the people of France, was inaugurated October 28, 1886, when transit Uranus was conjunct IC. When transit Pluto was conjunct the IC, the city almost went bankrupt, but avoided this misfortune by the help of a federal loan of USD 2.3 billion in 1975.

When the 2007-8 financial crisis began to affect Wall Street, transit ruler over the 8th House, Uranus, formed the very fateful Yod aspect pattern of 150 degrees to Neptune and Uranus.

At the same time, transit Saturn passed through the 2nd house conjunct radix Saturn, while transit Jupiter and progressed Moon passed through Capricorn conjunct Moon and the Descendant, which ruined many ordinary people.

When the World Trade Centre disaster took place on September 11, 2001 transit Neptune (9th house ruler) formed a 150 degrees Yod aspect pattern to Mars and Saturn. At the same time, transit Uranus (planes and terrorist groups) passed through Aquarius and the 8th house of death as opposed to the radix Uranus in Leo in the 2nd house.

When the corona virus spread in America in March 2020, it affected New York very badly, as transit Pluto, Saturn and Jupiter conjunct Capricorn and the Descendant.

The Chart of the European Union

EU (previously EF) January 1, 1958 at midnight, Brussels

Since both Great Britain and Germany astrologically have started on January 1, at midnight in 1801 and 1871 respectively, they have, like the 21st century and the EU chart, the Ascendant in Libra and the Sun about 10 degrees in Capricorn. Therefore, these states and organizations have transit Pluto, Saturn and Jupiter in the 4th house of Capricorn, just as the EU chart has. In all these charts, Progressive Sun has entered Aquarius by 2020.

These astrological influences have, among other things, led to the Dweller on the Threshold manifesting itself through an EU-hostile right-wing radical nationalist current in Europe, in response to the growing number of refugees and immigrants.

This meeting between different groups has in many places led to cultural clashes between traditional European values and the political and religious attitudes of many foreigners, which are also associated with transit Pluto's move through Sagittarius and the 3rd House during the period 1995 to 2008. National and international terrorism broke out in the spring of 1995, when transit Uranus entered Aquarius and transit Pluto moved into Sagittarius.

The EU's progressive ascendant was conjunct radix Neptune in Scorpio in the 2nd house, while transit Pluto was conjunct IC and entered Capricorn when the financial crisis broke out in 2008. This led to the Greek debt crisis a few years later, when transit Pluto was conjunct Sun in Capricorn, which is the sun sign in Greece's soul chart.

Radix Moon is in the EU chart in opposition to the 6th house ruler radix Neptune in Scorpio in the 2nd house, in square to radix Uranus in Leo in the 11th house and in square to radix Venus in the 5th house. Therefore, the Moon (individual member states) forms a grand cross in fixed signs and houses, where the partners often tend to have persistent or fixed ideas about how the individual states should fit into the community or vice versa. Since the Grand square is relaxed by, among other things, the radix Moon's trine to radix Sun and radix Uranus' trine to radix Mars, it has nevertheless always been possible to find a solution to all the crises, tests and problems that have arisen in the history of EU.

In 2020, transit Uranus was in conjunction with the Moon in Taurus in the 8th house, which also activated the Grand square, where Boris Johnson and Ursula von der Leyen in the autumn sought to find a solution to Britain's Brexit from the EU, as England (like Poland) has the Sun in Taurus in its soul chart. In 2021 the transit of Uranus will again be in conjunction with the Moon in opposition to 6th house ruler, Neptune, which is reflected in the European Union's problems with vaccinating its population.

The EU's progressive Sun and transit Jupiter/Saturn's conjunction with the EU's Part of Fortune 0:20 degrees in Aquarius in the 4th house in December ensured that a solution was found at the last minute, before January 1, 2021.
